Subject: OLLI Loudoun Notes June 13, 2008

Dear OLLI-Loudoun Students and Friends,

Thought for the week: People like to imagine that because all technology moves so much faster, we are thinking faster, too. Christopher Morley, writer (1890-1957).

An invitation from Roxie ... I've arranged for June 27th Let's Do Lunch! at 12:30:

Amvrosia Restaurant (Italian/Greek cuisine)
Shoppes at Ryan Park
43670 Greenway Corporate Dr. This is at the corner of Ashburn Village Blvd. and Shellhorn Road, across from Home Depot.

And now, the big question for this week is, "Are you free on Tuesday?" Walk-in registrations will be taken at our Loudoun site on Tuesday, June 17th from 9:00–11:00, followed by an Open House at 11:00.

It isn't the Brooklyn Bridge, but it is something I would like to sell you. It is the next step in getting the most at OLLI. When you register, write your check for $175. That's our special package deal. This gets you unlimited courses at Loudoun AND Reston this summer. The $175 would be applied to a full membership of $350 if you join OLLI in the fall 2008 term. For course descriptions of the courses in Reston, click here: <http://www.oli.gmu.edu/courses.htm#catinfo> . Catalogs are also available in the OLLI Loudoun office.

The Loudoun summer catalog is online, too:http://www.oli.gmu.edu/loudoun summer 08 allcat.pdf
